Boy

Adds a smile to your room

An amusing and enjoyable pouf, both in form and use.

Boy may remind us about our boyhood – those naive and carefree days playing all day long. Boy adds a smile to your room and can be just that dash of color you need. But since Boy is easy to move it can also function as an extra seat or footstool – or maybe even transfer the living room to a playground for your kid.

Norway Says

The young designer trio Norway Says managed to put Norway and Nordic forms back on the international design map shortly after they started their first collaboration in 1999. At first Norway Says was a design project, but in 2002 Torbjørn Anderssen, Andreas Engesvik and Espen Voll established Norway Says as a successful design group that achieved recognition and admiration worldwide for their Scandinavian aesthetics.

Norway Says won national and international prizes for their work, including Torsten & Wanja Søderberg Award, the Bruno Mathsson Award and the Wallpaper Award. The last mentioned was for Hjelle's sofa Ugo. After almost ten thriving years the three designers chose to end the adventure Norway Says in 2009.
